

RastaBwoyKell Bio

Born Again. Rastabwoykell, a rastafarian independent artist, videographer, and producer made a living recording artists and helping them promote their brand thru music videos. That all changed when the Agents of Babylon stole all his equipment and stripped him of his identity like the days in slavery. Without a camera rasta was lost and didn't know what to do, people would hit him up for videos and it hurt him every time to tell them that he couldn't help them. Unsatisfied with the life he was living, Rasta was determined to come up with a solution and turned to the teachings of his majesty. That's when he found out about "Life's Work." As he observed his life, he noticed he still had his home studio and decided to emulate Christ as a independent artist. Now a Certified Sound Therapist and practicing Herbalist, Rasta used his strengths to overcome his weaknesses and got additional training to develop his skills in healing to keep moving forward on his journey of emulation.

👑 Rastafari, Heed the Teachings 😊

👑 King Selassie is my inspiration.

I Create to Express Identity, Spirituality
& Personal Growth thru Trap Reggae